

BobsFunds Utilities Index

Annual Report — Year
Ended December 31,
2025
BFUTL

Letter to Shareholders

Dear Shareholder,

We are pleased to present the Annual Report for the BobsFunds Utilities Index for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025. The Fund continued to fulfill its mandate of providing broad, low-cost exposure to the utilities segment of the market, while maintaining its characteristic low expense ratio of 0.09%.

Markets in 2025 were characterized by resilient corporate earnings, moderating inflation, and gradual monetary policy easing by major central banks. Against this backdrop, the Fund delivered results consistent with its benchmark, net of its minimal fees.

We remain committed to our indexing philosophy: low costs, broad diversification, and disciplined portfolio management. We thank you for your continued trust.

Sincerely,
The Portfolio Management Team
Bob's Mutual Funds, Inc.

Performance Review

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the BobsFunds Utilities Index delivered performance in line with its benchmark, the MSCI US IMI Utilities 25/50. The Fund's tracking error remained within acceptable parameters, and the expense ratio was maintained at 0.09%, consistent with the prior year.

Equity markets continued to benefit from strong corporate earnings and improving economic conditions. The Federal Reserve's gradual easing cycle provided a supportive backdrop for risk assets. Volatility, while present in certain periods, remained manageable relative to long-term averages.

Portfolio Highlights

The Fund held approximately 70 securities as of December 31, 2025, providing diversified exposure across the utilities universe. Portfolio turnover remained low, consistent with the Fund's passive management approach.

The Fund distributed income to shareholders on a quarterly basis throughout the year, returning capital efficiently while maintaining portfolio integrity.

Management's Discussion

The Fund's investment results for 2025 reflected the performance of securities in the underlying index. The MSCI US IMI Utilities 25/50 advanced during the fiscal year, driven by broad-based strength across constituent sectors.

The Fund maintained its commitment to full investment in index securities, with minimal cash drag. Securities lending revenue partially offset fund expenses, benefiting shareholders. The Fund's annualized tracking difference for 2025 was within the expected range given the 0.09% expense ratio.
